Dull, Sluggish Feeling

"BLACK-DRAUGHT headache, and the ills is our household stand-by," says Mrs. Thomas H. Kell, who lives near Elijay, Ga. "We have been using it years and years. My mother's family used it and we do here and my four sisters do, too.

"I could not run my house without Black-Draught. I give it to the children whenever they need a purgative, and both Mr. Kell and myself take it. As a medicine for sluggish, liver and ... tion, Black-Draught is fine.

"Lots of times I have felt dull and sluggish, my head would ache and I had to make a great effort to do my work. A little dose of Black-Draught would correct this feeling. We always keep it on the medicine shelf."

The Latest Gleanings From All Over the State

THINGS SEEN AND HEARD

Lynchburg.—W. B. Clark, of Gladstone, who was brought to a hospital here, shot through the abdomen, although conscious, declined here to tell how he was shot.

Covington. — Twenty-four of the smaller schools in Alleghany county are closing this month instead of their regular term end because of the shortage of funds.

Monterey.—James M. Ralston, 75, a prominent farmer and auctioneer, was found dead on the road between Vanderopool and Monterery. He is survived by a large family most of whose members reside in the West.

Lynchburg.—The executive committee of the State Epileptic Colony, meeting here, adopted a resolution asking the General State Hospital Board to meet in Richmond March 26 to elect a superintendent of the colony.

Accomac.—Northern Neck farmers, fishermen and business men are of one accord in their outlook for good business this year. The farmers are organized; old fishermen predict a successful season, and the business men think prosperity will follow.

Luray.—Hemmed in by a raging fire that he had started preparatory to beginning farming operations, Ray T. Koontz, a well-known farmer, lies terribly burned at his home, five miles south of Luray. His life is despaired of and if he recovers will probably be disfigured for life.

Lynchburg.—Twenty-one seniors at the E. C. Glass High School here, a fourth of the membership of the class, were made charter members of a new National Honor Roll society for high schools, selections having been made for character, leadership and service to the school.

Clifton Forge.—Caught in the act of angling for trout in Smith Creek north of the city a man named Pitzpatrick, of Nelson county, was arrested by W. Lee Beckner, game warden, and taken before Justice of the Peace Peters, who imposed a fine, which with costs, totaled $33.75.

Roanoke.—Arrangements which, it is expected, will lead to completion of the Rocky Mount-Roanoke road by the next fall were announced by B. F. Moomaw, secretary of the Roanoke Chamber of Commerce. This is, perhaps, the most important and most discussed gap of road in the highway system.

Winchester.—The Baltimore annual conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which meets in Washington, March 25, will be extended an invitation to hold its 1925 session in Braddock Street Church here, according to a resolution adopted unanimously by the official board of that congregation.

Winchester.—Captain George W. Kurtz, saidto be the only living commissioned officer of the old "Stonewall" brigade of the Confederate Army, celebrated his eighty-seventh birthday at his home here. The day found him enjoying fairly good health, and fully capable of giving his business personal attention.

Harrisonburg.—Directors of Shenandoah Valley, Inc., and members of the executive committee of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce met here and formulated working plans between the two organizations so that there will be no duplication of efforts in the campaign for the location of the Shenandoah National Park in Virginia.

Richmond.—Appealing for, unselfish co operation in bringing Virginia toaghe top in commercial, agricultural, financial, industrial and civic importance, Major LeRoy Hodges, managing director of the State Chamber of Commerce, before the Rivanna Club, delivered a heartening address on "Virginia," and left many pertinent thoughts with his hearers. He pointed out that success could come only through the united effort of the people of the various geographical sections of the State, and that such co-operation could but redounded to the unbounded credit of the people and the ultimate growth of the State.

Charlottesville.—The first actual work on the erection of the city's splendid hotel, the Monticello, to cost $500,000, was begun when a force of Hall Mitchell, contractors for the foundation, started the digging with a big steam shovel. The new hotel will be nine stories high and will face Courthouse Square and Jackson Park.

Staunton.—In the Corporation Court here Mrs. Ada J. Shoots, suing for $169 claimed due as the result of a trunk being stored in her garage, was awarded judgment for $25.

Norfolk.—Dorothy Stokes, 16 years old, is dead, and her brother, Edward Stokes, 14, is badly injured as the result of a collision between the Norfolk County School bus and Norfolk and Southern train No. 6, at Bell's Station, Norfolk county. The girl was the driver of the school bus and her brother its only passenger.

Contention—Should Bob Hyde and Officer Campbell arrested Jesse Sprinkle, William Brown, Harry Huff and James Lowan, white, and Henry Tartitt, colored, on a charge of transporting liquor and confiscated the car they were in. The officers caught the car in a pocket on the Rexford bridge between Covington and Callaghan Sunday afternoon.

Staunton. — C. K. Bayler, deputy State motor vehicle commissioner, with headquarters in this city, patroled the Greenville road between Staunton and Mint Springs on Sunday and eight motorists charged with speeding were called into court as a result. All were convicted and fined $15.35 each. Four noted appeals, but in less than half an hour after the court had passed sentence, two of the latter returned and paid up.

Winchester. — Three young Winchester men who have been in New Jersey Hospitals for several weeks, suffering from effects of ethyl gas poisoning, have arrived here to recuperate their strength. They are E. Morgan Pendleton, Jr., Stephenson and Edward Koch. They said they had been poisoned by the gas while employed in the plant of the DuPont Company at Penns Grove, N. J.

Basic.—Patrons of the Basic Post Office are greatly pleased at the appointment of Miss E. Blanche Tomes to the head of the office. Miss Tomes was born in Nelson County, Va., and since ten years old she has been a resident of this city. She was a clerk in the Basic Post-Office from September 1, 1920, to March 31, 1924, and since April 1, 1924, has been acting postmaster.

Richmond. — The legality of a farmer's transfer of property to his wife in a case involving the Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association selling agreement will be decided by the Supreme Court of Appeals, which granted an appeal to Belcher Layne, who complained against a decree handed him in favor of the association, granted by the Circuit Court of Charlotte County.

Lexington.—Frank Moore has announced himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the House of Delegates from the district composed of Rockbridge county and the City of Buena Vista. He was a member of the committees on Retrenchment and Economy, Federal-Relations and Resolutions, Insurance and Banking and Appropriations at the last session.

Covington. — The Bulls vs. the Bears. This is the contest now on in the Kiwanis Club of Covington. It's all over the attendance record for March and April. Formerly a member could forget his meeting. Now this is impossible. If he is on the Bear team, he is sure to get a dozen calls several days before the meeting, especially on the day of the meeting, reminding him of his obligation. If he is on the Bull team, it is the same thing.

Staunton.—Toll gates remain on certain Augusta county roads until the Board of Supervisors vote to remove them. Users of the Middlebrook road, whose fight for the abolition of the toll-levy was carried into the Circuit Court here, lost their case, Judge Henry W. Holt holding that the Augusta Board of Supervisors was within its legal rights in maintaining toll gates on roads that share in the State-aid appropriation.

Charlottesville.—Staige Davis Blackford, of the university, has been elected president of the graduating class of 1925 of the University of Virginia, with Fred J. Lotterhos, of Jackson, Miss., as vice-president, and Paul Knorr Walp, of Charlottesville, Va., as treasurer. A class secretary will be appointed by the new officers and committees will be named to prepare for the 1925 finals celebration on June 14, 15 and 16.

Lynchburg.—Charles Scott, a railroad employee, and Edward Jefferson, a ministerial student at the Virginia Theological Seminary and College, a negro institution here, both negroes, are dead as the result of a fight here in the home of Lotitia Armistead, a negro woman. Apparently the men fought, one with a flat iron and the other with a razor, for Scott had his head badly mangled with a blunt instrument, while Jefferson's head was almost severed with one slash of what appears to have been a razor.

Blackburg.—Construction was begun on the World War memorial gymnasium of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, the building to cost $250,000. It is expected that it will be completed by January 1, 1926. The institution has been without an athletic home since the field house was destroyed by fire two years ago. The memorial feature of the gymnasium will be the lobby in which will be placed the names of all Virginia Tech men who served in the World War.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that they feel much better when they are in good health. The fact proves that when Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly benefited by constitutional remedies.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE consists of an Ointment to be applied directly to local affections, and an Internal Medicine, a Tonic, which assists in purifying the blood. Both are good for dropsies for over 40 Years.

Lesson for March 22

THE FORTY DAYS AND THE ASCENSION

LESSON TEXT—Luke 24:13-53.
GOLDEN TEXT—Ye are witnesses of these things.—Luke 24:48.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Goes Back to His Father.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Ascends to Heaven.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Forty Days and the Ascension.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Ever Living Christ.

I. The Walk of Two Discouraged Disciples (vv. 13-15).

Emmaus was seven and a half miles northwest of Jerusalem. Just why they were walking this way we do not surely know. Perhaps their home was there, or they were merely walking to seek relief from their stunning sorrow if they had believed what Jesus told them about His death and resurrection they would have escaped this great disappointment. The topic of conversation was the tragedy of the cross and the resurrection rumors. If they had believed what He said about coming forth from the grave they would have been expecting to hear just such reports as were being circulated.

II. The Unrecognized Companion (vv. 16-24).

1. Who He Was—Jesus (v. 15).

While they reasoned together on the wonderful events of the last few days Jesus joined them. Even when He questioned them concerning their sadness they did not recognize Him. Many times we are so taken up with our sorrows and disappointments that we do not recognize Jesus walking by our side.

2. His Question (v. 17).

Perceiving their sadness and perplexities, He sought to help by calling forth a statement of their grief.

3. Their Answer (v. 18).

His question so surprised them that they jumped at the conclusion that He was a stranger in Jerusalem, for the condemnation and crucifixion of the great Prophet of Nazareth were so recent and notorious that no one that had lived in Jerusalem could be ignorant of them. One valuable feature of the unbelief of the disciples was that it revealed the fact that they were not credulous enthusiasts, but hard to convince. Out of this incredulity of the disciples developed unshaken faith in Christ's resurrection.

III. The Scriptures Opened (vv. 25-31).

1. His Rebuke (vv. 25-30).

He did not rebuke them for not believing the strange stories that they had heard, but for ignorance and lack of confidence in the Old Testament Scriptures. They had only accepted such parts of the Old Testament as suited their notions. Men and women who do not believe all that the Scriptures say about the work of the blessed Savior are entirely blameworthy. The very center and heart of the Old Testament Scriptures set forth the death and resurrection of Christ. It is ignorance of the Scriptures and unbelief of the wonders and complete redemption wrought by Christ that robs us of gates on roads that share in the State-aid appropriation.

2. Jesus Recognized (vv. 31-35).

While sitting at meat with the disciples their eyes were opened as they saw Him bless the bread and distribute it to them. We, too, can see the Lord on such common occasions as eating a meal, if we have open eyes.

Indeed we ought to see Him when eating, selling, buying and in our recreations, for He has promised us His presence. They were so filled with joy over this revelation of the Savior that they hastened back to Jerusalem to tell the other disciples of His resurrection.

IV. Jesus Stands in the Midst of the Eleven (vv. 36-47).

1. He said, "Peace be unto you" (vv. 6-47), but they were terrified and affrighted. Sinful men in the presence of God is ill at ease.

2. He showed them His hands and His feet (vv. 38-40). In order to convince them of His personal identity He gave them tangible evidence that He was not a mere spirit.

3. He ate before them (vv. 41-43).

4. He commissioned them to evangelize the world (vv. 46-49).

They were to testify concerning His shed blood and resurrection, and on this ground they were to preach repentance and remission of sins to all nations.

V. Jesus Ascends into Heaven (vv. 50-53).

Having given them the parting message to evangelize the world, He ascended into heaven. Just as we trust up the last words of our departed loved ones so we should ponder this farewell message of Christ.

Banks of the Sabbath

The streams of religion run deeper or shallower, as the banks of the Sabbath are kept up or neglected. A preacher in Holland called the Sabbath "dyke-work," shutting out an ocean of evils.—Calcott.

Must Have Him in Hearts

They only can understand the Holy Ghost who have Him dwelling in their hearts. Their only real worship is the Spirit who have the Holy Spirit as an abiding counselor.—N. H. Mark.

VERA

Gardening is the order of the day, a good rain has made it possible for gardens to be worked and before many moons we will be eating home-garden lettuce, onions, peas and all sorts of good things.

Mrs. Edgar LeFew, Misses Thelma and Laura Jennings and Otys and Arnold Childers of Lynchburg, William and Ray Hall of Roanoke, motored to the Pocahontas grounds and enjoyed a picnic dinner, then came on out and spent the afternoon and took supper with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Childers.

Someone has said "If your face wants to smile, let it." One would suppose it were hardly necessary to give such advice. Surely if your face wants to smile you should let it. Even when you go a little farther—if it doesn't want to smile make it. Even a smile that is "put on" to cover up a gloomy mood is better than a frown, for if the lips catch the trick of smiling before you know it they will be doing it of their own accord. "Keep smiling" is a good slogan.
